JOHN M. HARLAN
HIGH SCHOOL
9652 South Michigan
Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60628

Joseph M. Smith, Principal

As principal of Harlan High School, I salute you vigorously, and eagerly take this opportunity to make what may be one final imprint on your impressionable minds. Let me begin by saying — you are not finished yet. Your molding is not complete; your process of learning is ongoing. You are still cooking.

Certainly, you have met requirements for graduation. You may now be basking in the knowledge that you have been accepted into college with financial aid; you may have a promising future in the vocational arena of your choice; but, you are not at all finished.

Enter your post high school era confronting your incompleteness. Be alert to the signals that are a part of a good life. This alertness will help you to enjoy a fine life and attain a well-defined, high level of humanity. Get on with it.

ACTIVITIES

NCA EVALUATES HARLAN

During the spring of 1984, the North Central Association, the largest academic accrediting agency in the United States, evaluated the program and facilities of Harlan High School. This accreditation process is performed once every seven years. Teachers, administrators, students, support personnel, and members of the community are given an opportunity to examine existing programs and offer suggestions for improvement. This Self-Study, performed the year previous to the visitation, is then validated by the NCA Visitation Team. Their report will offer additional suggestions for improvement.

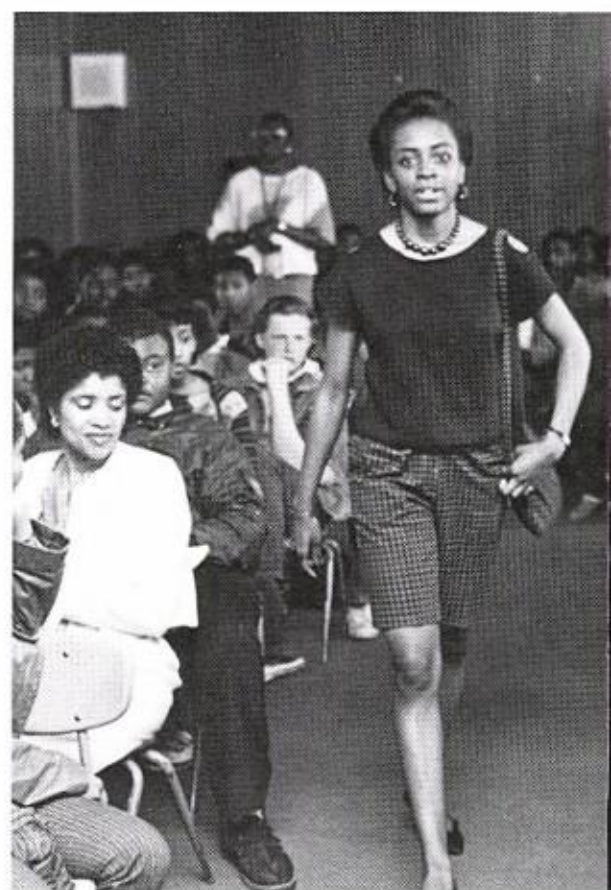

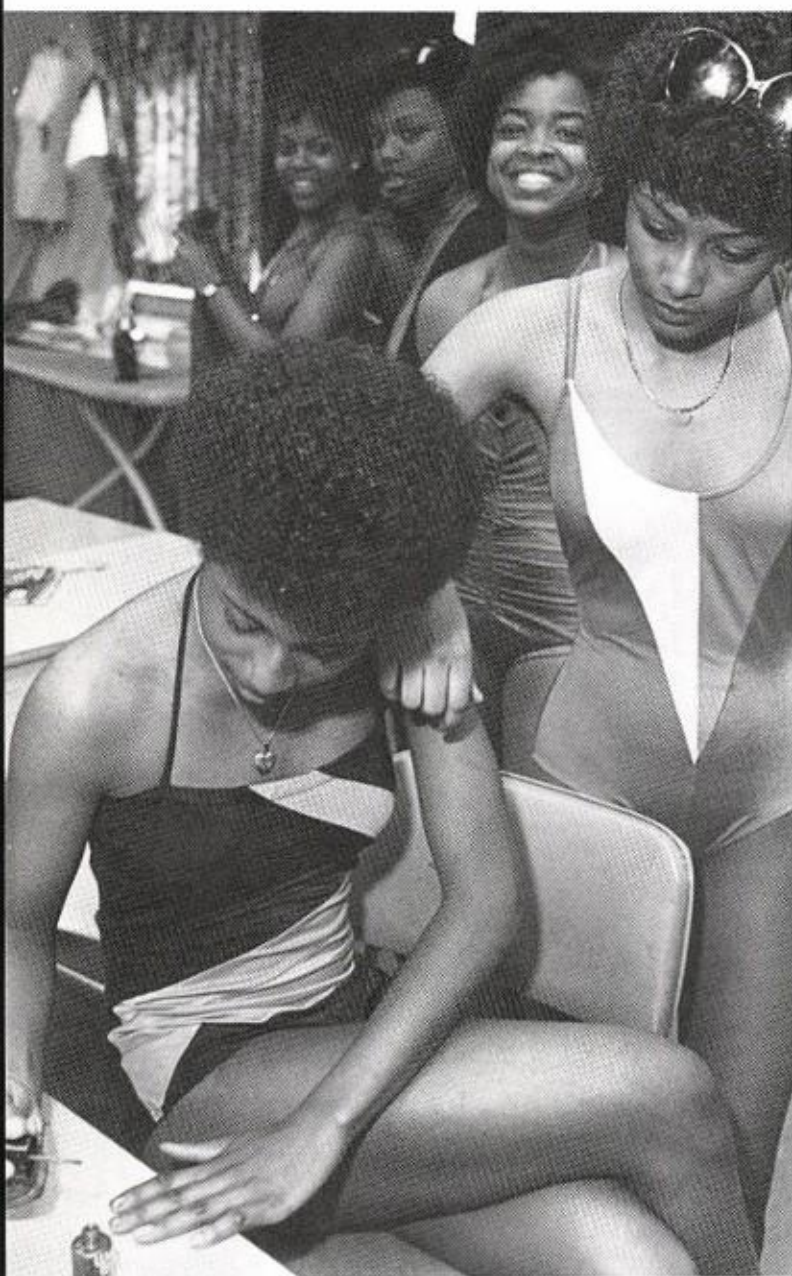

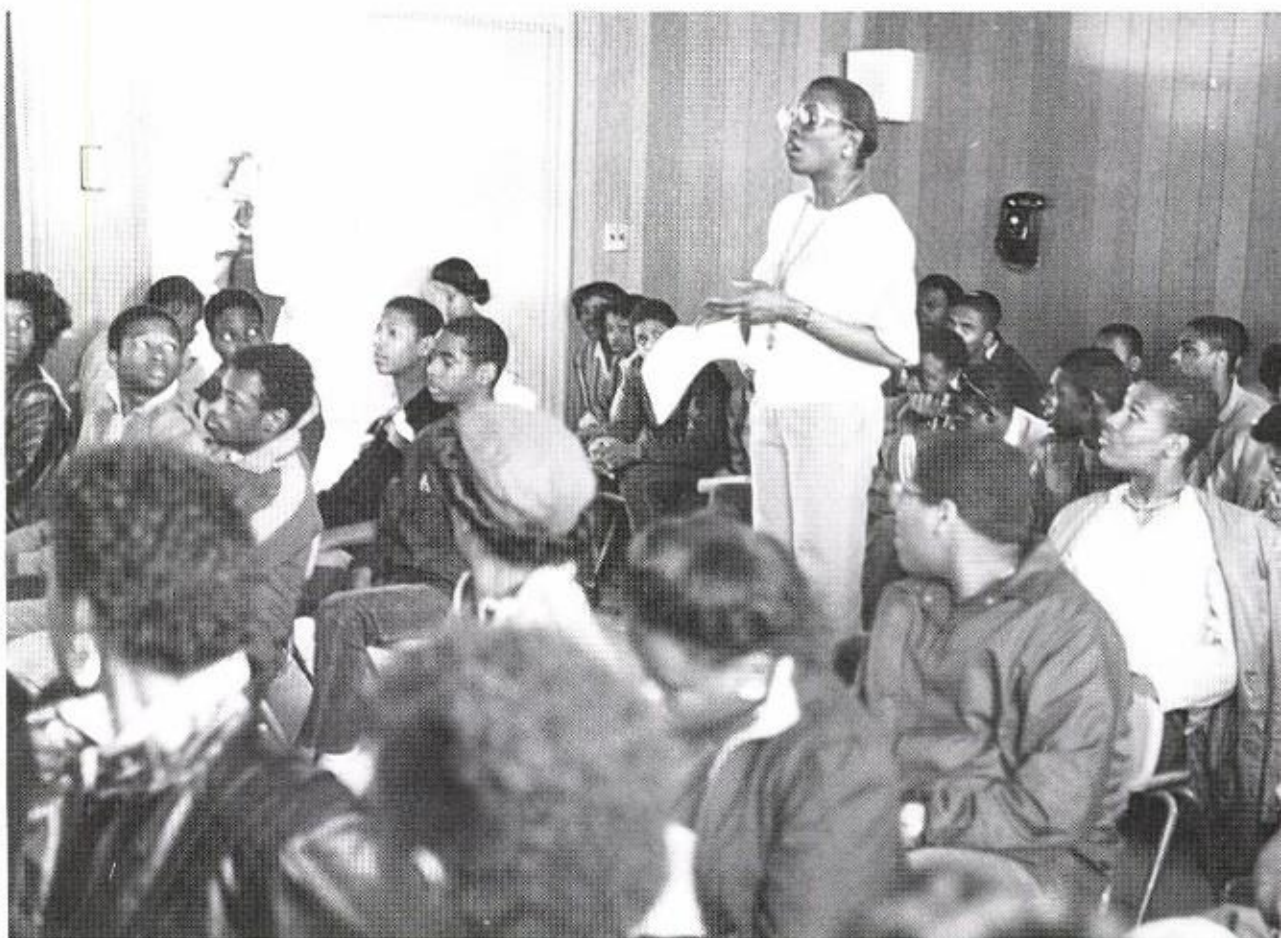

Under the guidance of Mrs. Bettye Stuckey and Mr. Michael Kolos, co-chairmen of the Steering Committee, Harlan came through with flying colors. After welcoming the team at a dinner attended by the district superintendent, administrators, faculty and staff members, the team set to work. Their reports were typed daily by Harlan High School students. The committee was highly appreciative for this service. They indicated that this was the first school where such service was provided.

We appreciate the time and effort of the Visitation Team, which was composed of teachers, administrators, college and university personnel, as well as State Department personnel. We look forward to another visit in seven years!

CLOTHING STUDENTS MODEL

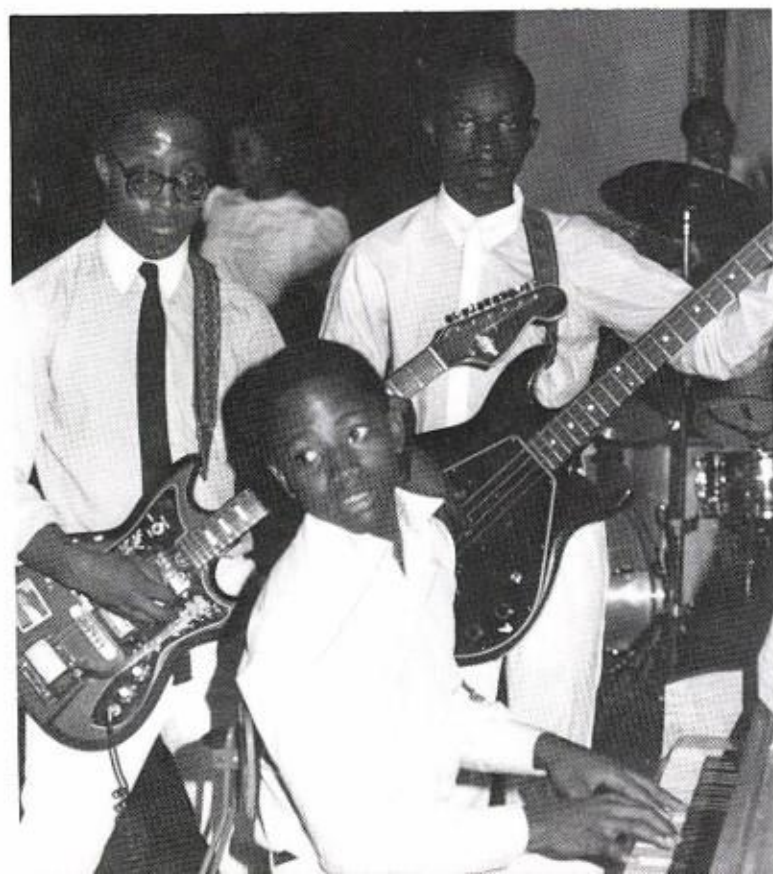

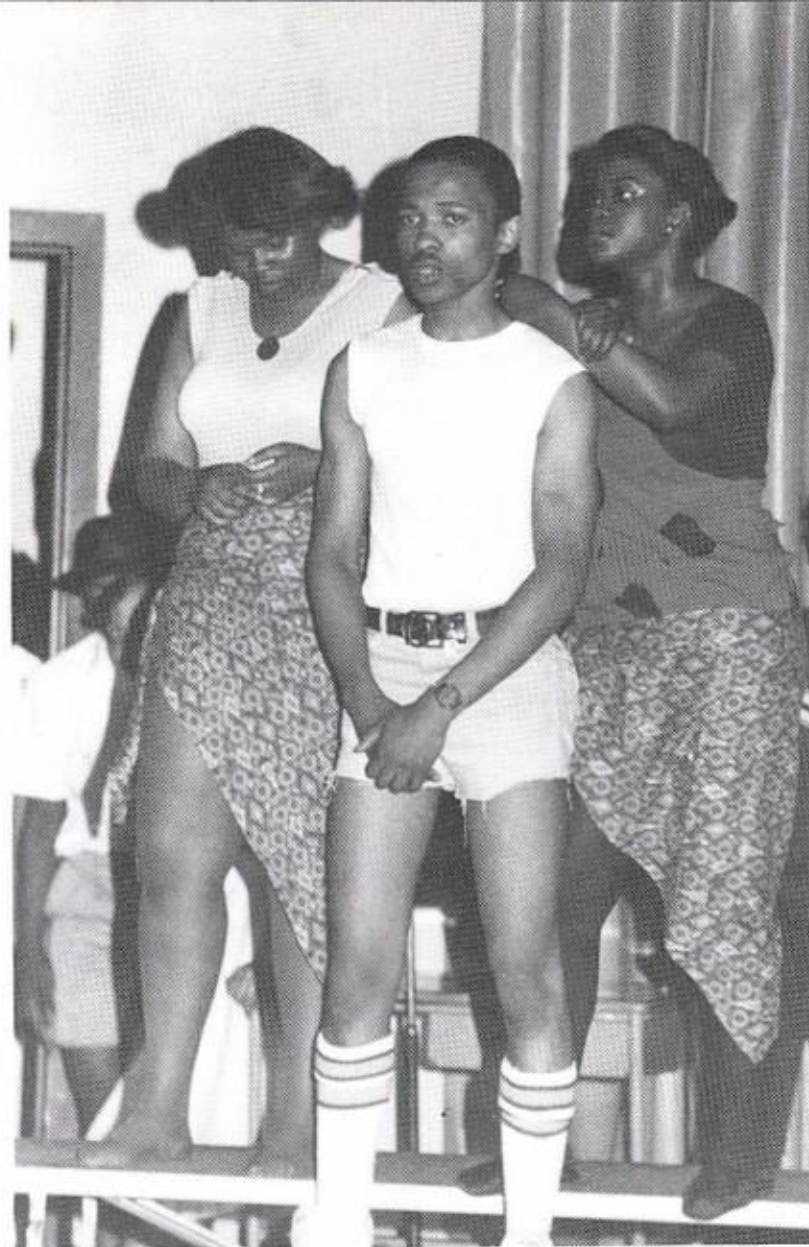

After a year of instruction from Mrs. Helen Shaw-Tilgner, Clothing students put on a fashion show to model their creations. The show was a big success. The students modeled swimsuits and prom dresses that they had made. Models participating were Patricia Garner, Dutchess James, Jacquelyn Stringer, Freda Smith, Tina Burns, Angela Marshall, Stephanie Henderson and Tonya.

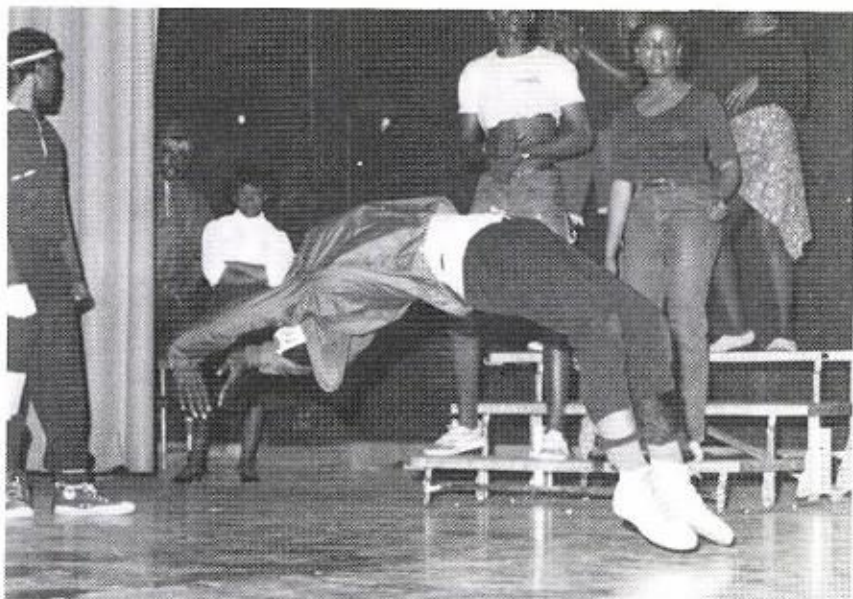

MUSIC STUDENTS PERFORM!

The Music Department's production of excerpts from "Flashdance-What a Feeling" was a delight to the many students, faculty members and community members who came out to watch Harlan High School music students perform.

WHAT A FEELING!

SPELLING BEE A SUCCESS

The Harlan High School Spelling Bee offers all students an opportunity to compete for awards, trophies, and well-deserved academic recognition. There is a trophy for the winner at each grade level — freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior. Those four winners then compete for the prestigious title of All School Spelling Champion. With spelling prowess as their only weapon, they fight it out at the finals in May during Harlan's English Week festivities. Ms. Pamela Pierce is the sponsor of the Spelling Bee.

Krista Slaughter, All School Champion

Marcus Parrott - Junior Runner-up

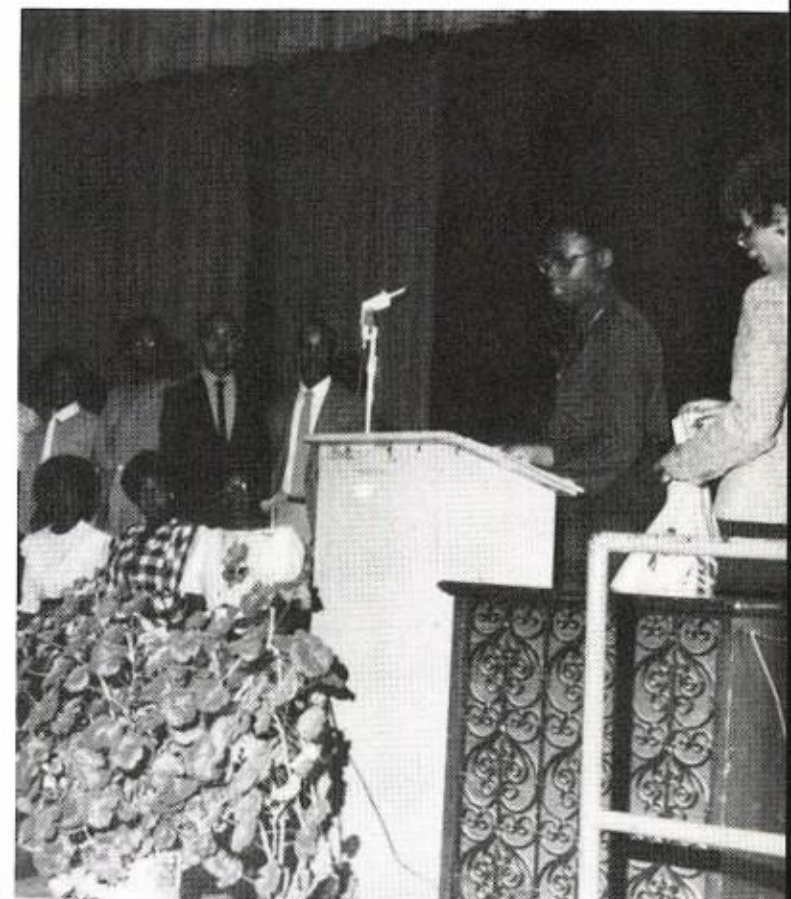

Tisha Keith and Ms. P. Pierce, sponsor

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION

In the Spring, 1984, new members were inducted into the Harlan Chapter of the National Honor Society. Under the guidance of Ms. Betty Stuckey, chapter sponsor, the ceremony was conducted with the solemnity and dignity worthy of students who have striven for academic excellence. Every student inducted has attained a 3.0 or better grade point average. Last year's valedictorian, Pheobe Slaughter, returned from college to help conduct the ceremonies.

Miss Phoebe Slaughter, 1983 valedictorian and Ms. Betty Stuckey, sponsor

HARLAN HOLDS ENGLISH FAIR

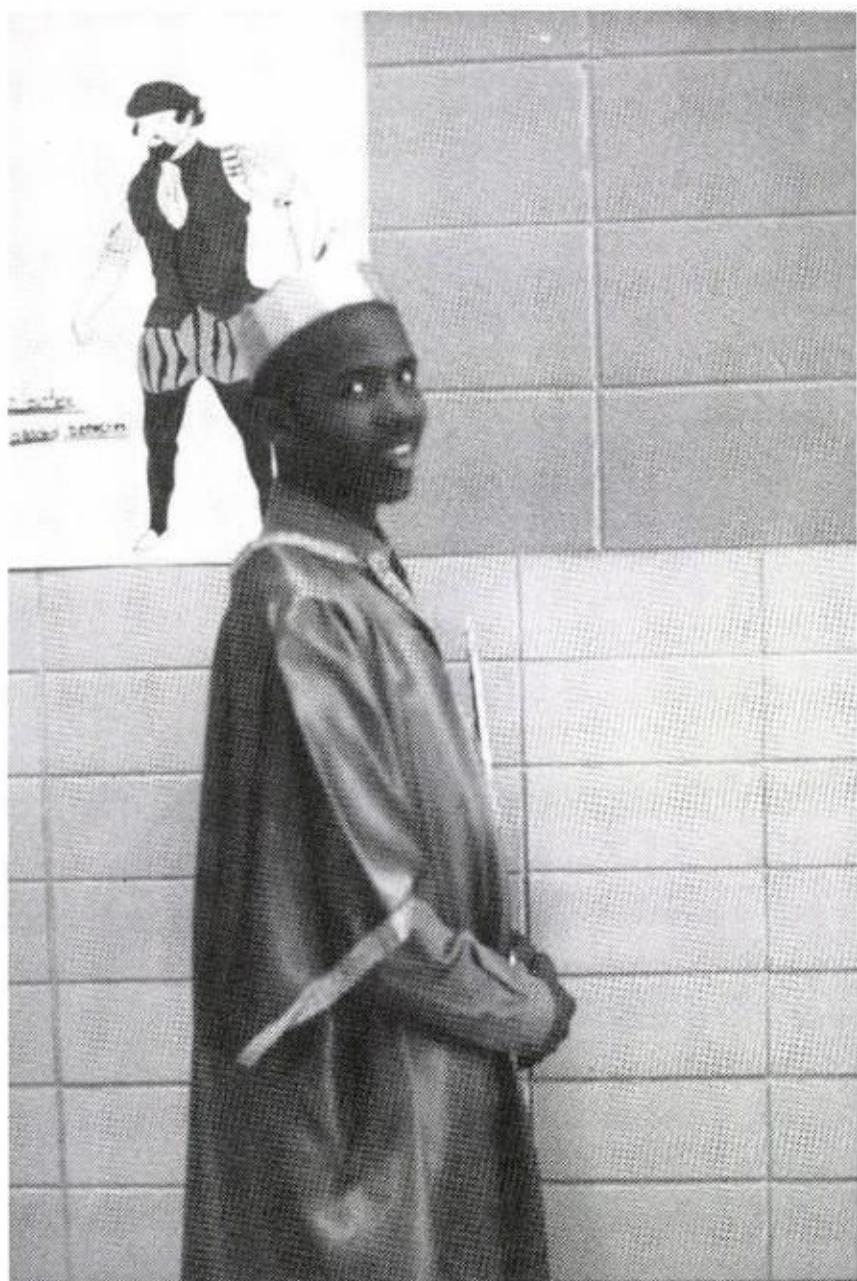

Rodney Marsh and Colette Sims dressed as characters from the play, MacBeth.

The Harlan High School English Department held its second annual English Fair in the small gym in May, 1984. Many of this school year's activities in English in many classes were represented by displays, demonstrations, speeches, costumes, and reports. A good time was had by all who participated, according to Ms. J. Catherine Link, sponsor.

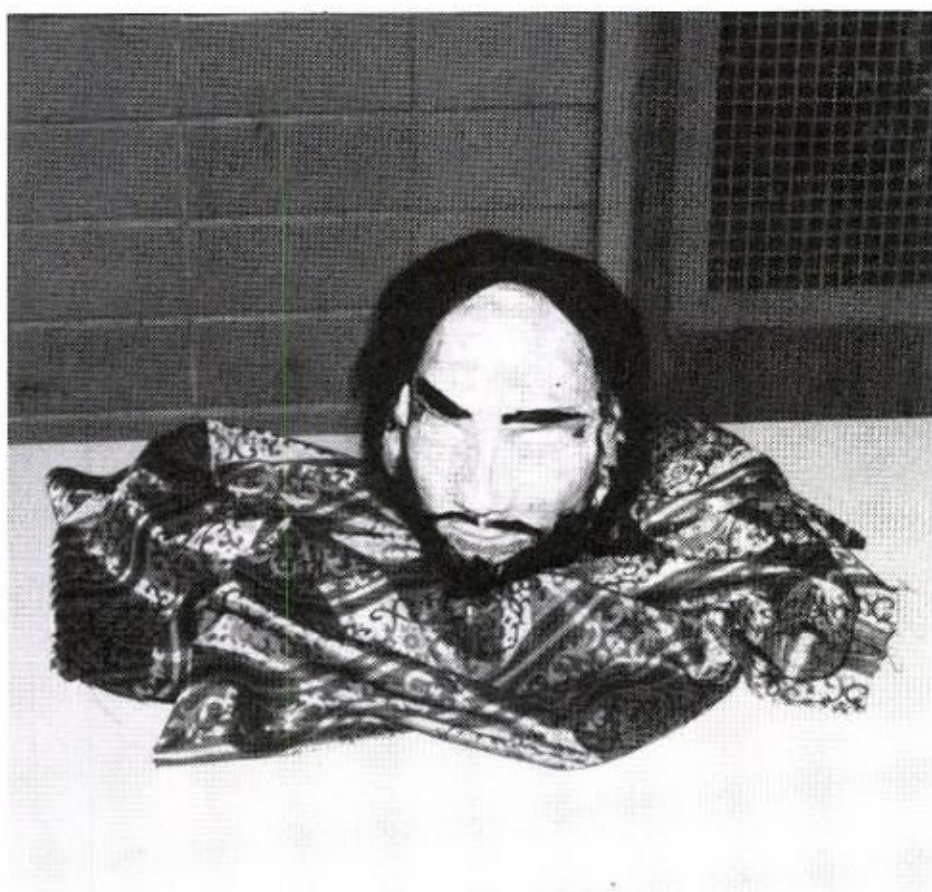

Joy Hills, Stephanie Henderson, and Lisa Livingston boil up some trouble as the three witches from MacBeth.

The mighty MacBeth, Rodney Marsh, before his first vision

Two valiant Romans, John Shannon and Shadrach Amegashie, as they prepare to present Mark Antony's speech from Julius Caesar.

The tyrant Macbeth's head as it appeared after his duel to the death with Macduff as recreated by one of our art students.

Master Builder, Sheldon Jackson, with his model of the Globe Theater, popular recreational spot during Shakespeare's time.

ENGLISH DEPT. STUDENTS DRESSED IN ELIZABETHAN COSTUMES.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE BREAKFAST

On June 22, 1984, the History Club, Mrs. A. Rossiter, sponsor, presented pins to those students who had perfect attendance records for the school year, 1984-84.

BLACK HISTORY CELEBRATION

During the month of February, Harlan commemorated the accomplishments of outstanding black contributors to our history by participating in activities planned by the Student Council and the History Club. The Theme was "Black on Black Love." Among the guest speakers was Rev. Donald Raickett, ventriloquist, who shared his black experiences with us with the assistance of his dummy. Other activities were Dress-Up Day, Knowledge Day, Courtesy Day, and School Spirit Day. The activities culminated with an assembly at which Mrs. Juanita Bratcher, Chicago Defender reporter, was guest speaker.

Class Song of 1985 We'll Remember

We're remembering all the days
When we thought this hour
Intangible and far away;
We were dreaming of the time
When we'd hear the graduation song
Ring on the chimes.

Chorus

We're reaching out for new horizons;
The future's in the palm of our hands.
It's not the end but the beginning
When we will start to make our stand.

Accomplishments that we've made
Are the things that kept us going
And will never fade.
While leaving, we'll keep in mind
All the happiness and memories
We've left behind.

SPORTS

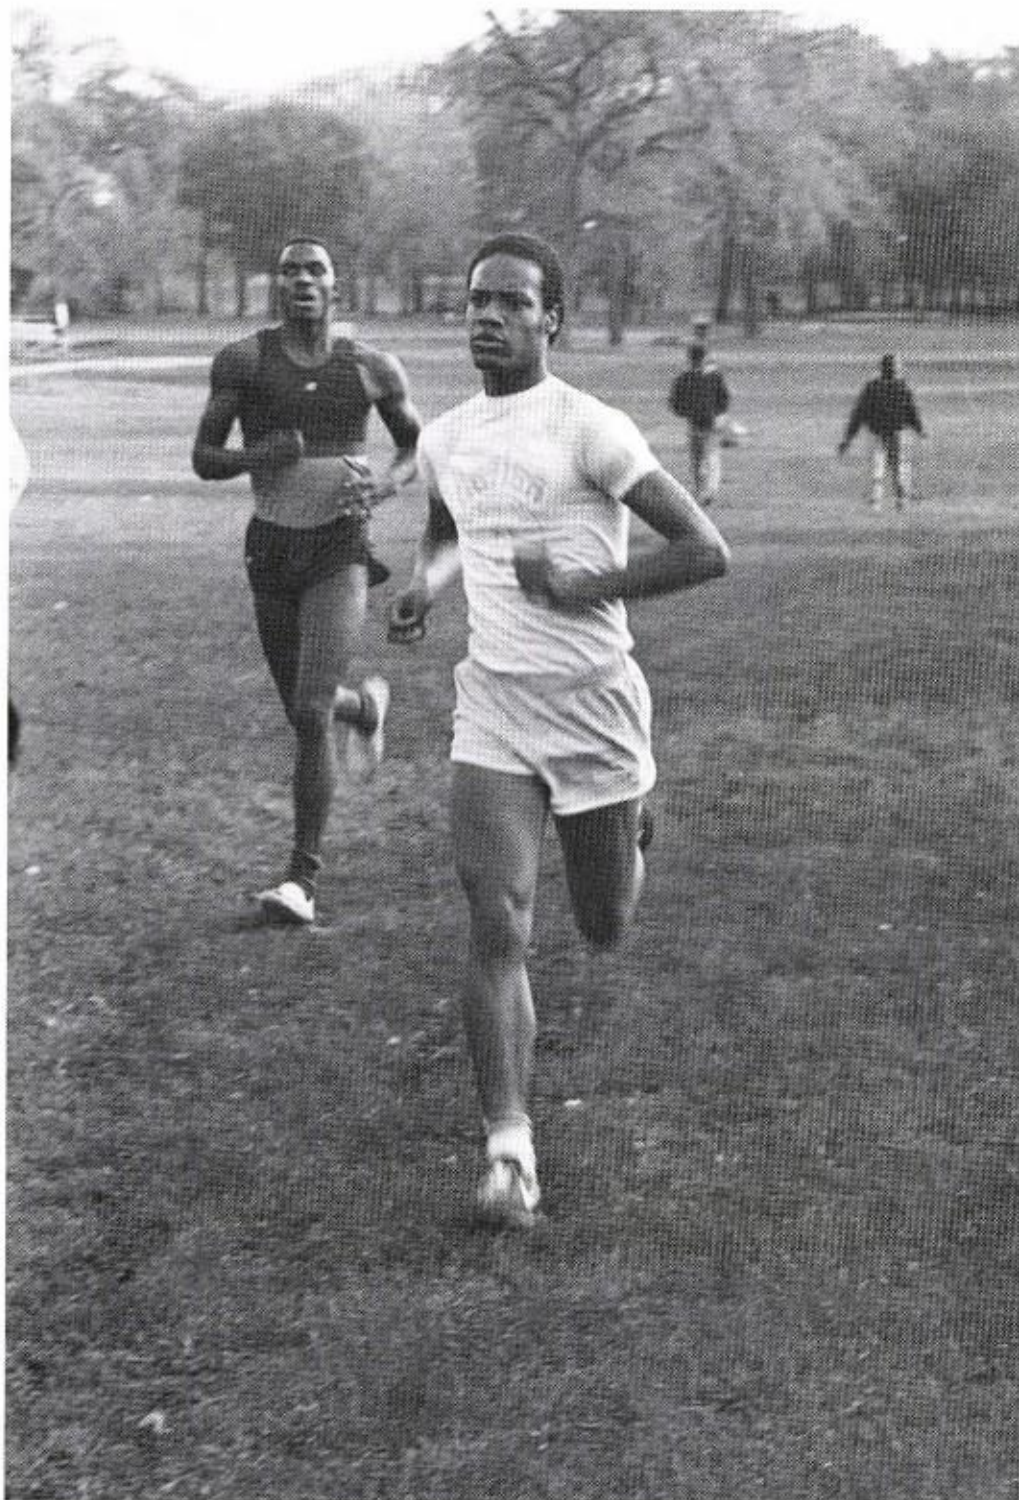

1984-85 CROSS COUNTRY TEAM: L-R: Ishmael Adams, Roger Jones, Grady Coats, Wendell Coleman, Juan Tisdale, Reginald Dortch, Elree Cox

Wendell Coleman

Reginald Dortch

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country has only three returning members from last year — Phillip Batey, Ishmael Adams, and Roger Jones.

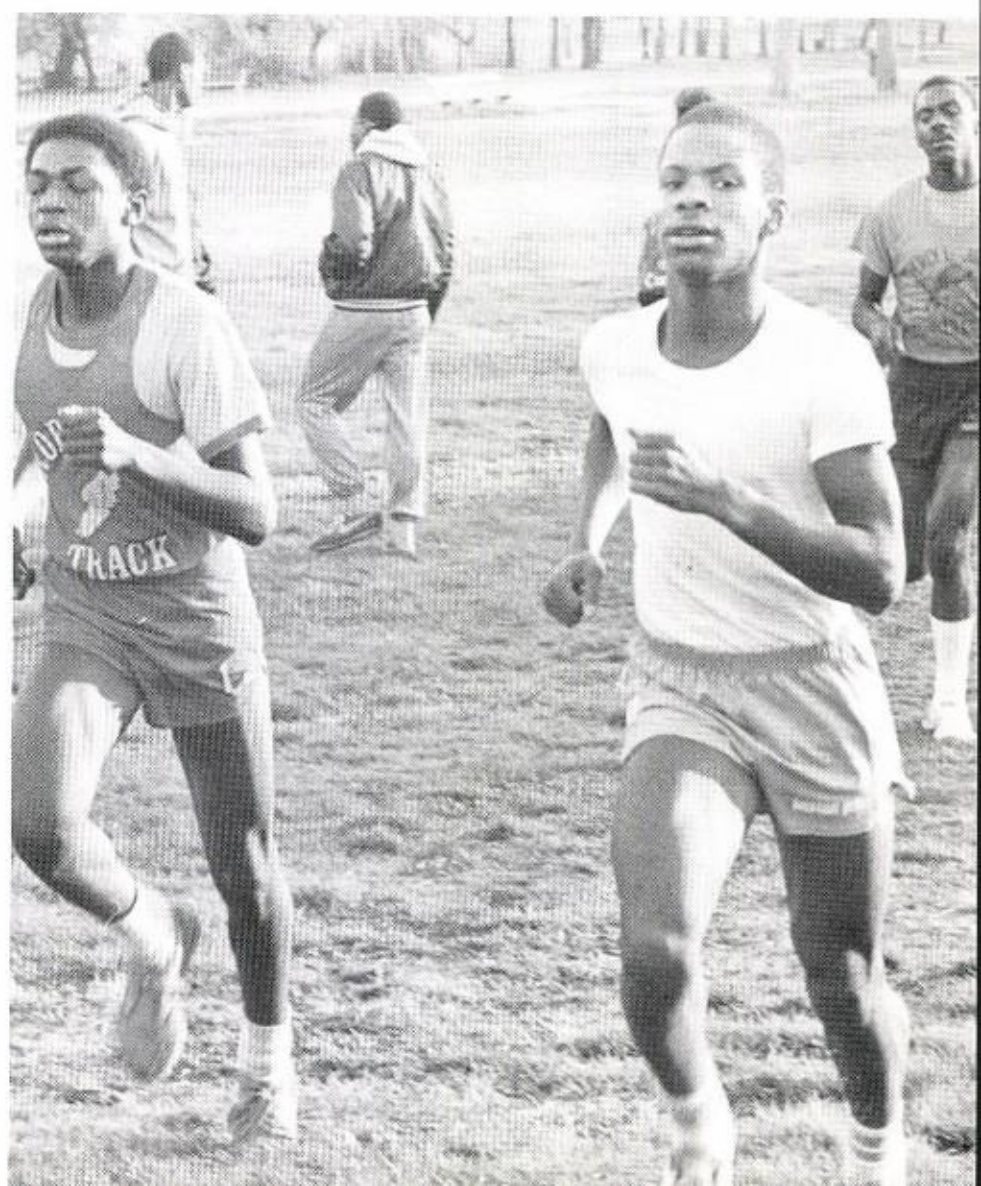

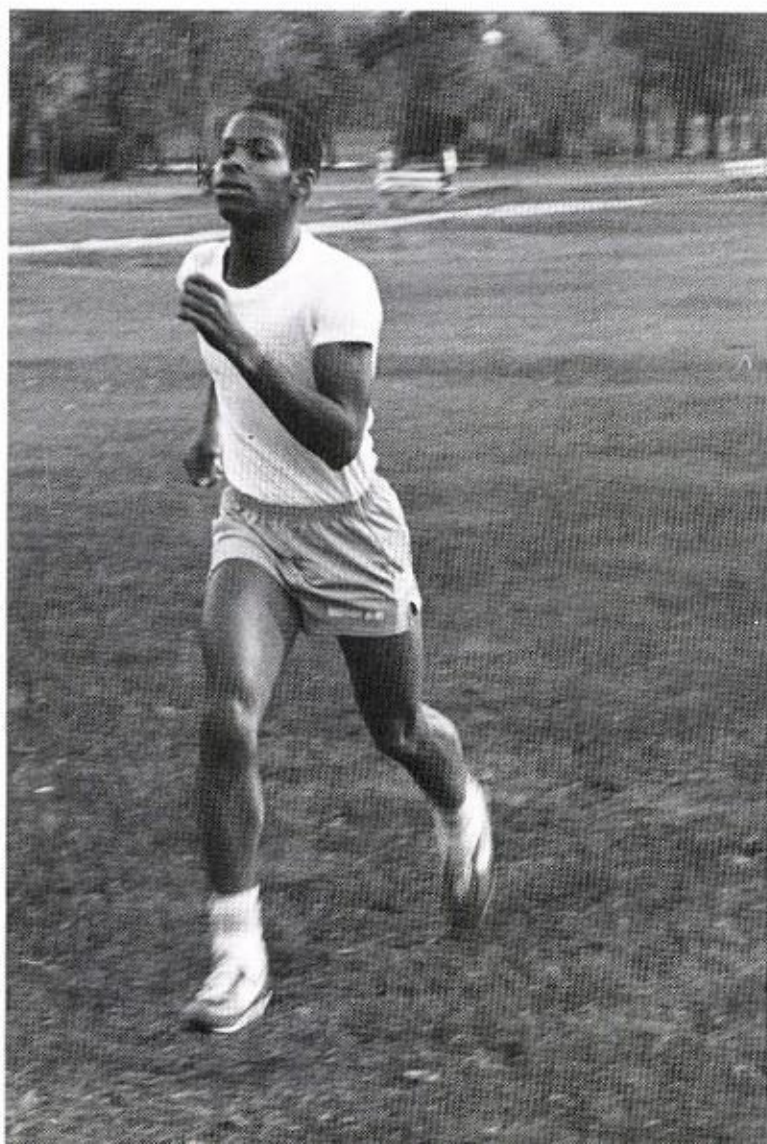

Coach Richard said that fresh-sophs will have to hold the team this year. Larry Hoskins is showing much progress, but Coach Richard is making no predictions at present.

Cross Country members practice daily. They know they have to be in top physical shape to be ready for each meet.

Coach Richards says that the talent is there to maintain a top rate team, but "they have to work on self-discipline which is a key to being a winner."
